

DONATIONS OF ARTWORK POLICY
ULYSSES PHILOMATHIC LIBRARY

The Ulysses Philomathic Library is pleased to accept donations of artwork and artifacts, with the approval of the Director and a majority of the Board of Trustees.

Criteria to be considered prior to acceptance of artwork, apart from its quality and condition are: compatibility with the interior décor of the library, size with regard to display or storage space when not on display, and appropriate thematic content.

The Board of Trustees reserves the right to sell the work for the benefit of the library.

The library will formally acknowledge gifts of artwork but will not appraise or estimate the value of these gifts. This responsibility rests with the donor.
