

Homeschooling: a library guide

Everything You Need to Know About Homeschooling: a comprehensive, easy-to-use guide for the journey from early learning through graduation

371.04 Garfias

This complete reference guide will provide you with everything you need to successfully tackle homeschooling in your own style, filling your experience with confidence, grace, and the joy of learning.

Unschoolled: raising curious, well-educated children outside the conventional classroom

371.04 McDonald

In a compelling narrative that introduces historical and contemporary research on self-directed education, this book spotlights how a diverse group of individuals and organizations are evolving an old schooling model of education.

Raising Free People: unschooling as liberation and healing work

371.04 Richards

This book explores examples of the transition from school or homeschooling to unschooling, how single parents and people facing financial challenges unschool successfully, and the ways unschooling allows us to address generational trauma, center human connection, and practice clear and honest communication.

The Homeschooling Starter Guide: how to create and adapt the best education action plan for your needs

371.04 Riley

This starter guide includes sections on Schooling Styles, Staying on Track, Standards and Requirements, and Inclusive Action Plans in order to help you turn your home into an ideal school environment and help every child succeed.

Home Learning Year by Year: how to design a creative and comprehensive homeschool curriculum

371.04 Rupp

Revised and updated in 2020, this book presents comprehensive plans from preschool through high school, covering integral subjects for each grade, with lists of topics commonly presented at each level, recommended resource and reading lists, and suggestions for creative alternative options and approaches.

The 4 Hour School Day: how you and your kids can thrive in the homeschool life

371.04 Wilson

This book attempts to demystify homeschooling and address common fears like, what if I'm not qualified, how can I homeschool as a single parent, and what if I don't have enough time? Packed with encouragement and practical advice, this resource equips you with the information you need to create a sustainable homeschooling plan customized to your child or children.

Homeschooling High School: with college in mind

371.042 Sproger

This book lays out 10 easy to follow steps for going from high school to college. Colleges are looking for motivated, self-starters, like our homeschooled teens. Showcase your student to college admissions while keeping your nurturing homeschool style front and center.

The Book You Read to Teach Your Children: eight ways to keep learning at home fun

371.19 Tollitt

Covering eight key principles for how to approach learning in way that maximizes fun, and minimizes stress, this short accessible book emphasizes the need for flexibility, conversation and openness. It will help you ask the right questions and understand how your attitude towards learning impacts your children. Full of practical tips, suggestions and judgment-free advice.

The Call of the Wild + Free: reclaiming wonder in your child's education

372.1042 Arment

This book offers advice, information, and positive encouragement for parents considering homeschooling, those currently in the trenches looking for inspiration, as well as parents, educators, and caregivers who want supplementary resources to enhance their kids' traditional educations.